Group Discussion

1. In the midst of Roman tyranny, Jesus says “I have told you these things, so that in me you may have peace. In this world you will have trouble. But take heart! I have overcome the world.” John 16:33 and “You will hear of wars and rumours of wars, but see to it that you are not alarmed...” (Matthew 24:6-8) How does this challenge the way we usually react to bad news in the world today?
2. In the book of Revelation, Pastor Bill highlights four tactics our Enemy used in battle against God’s people: Deception, Division, Distraction, and Despair. Which of these is the biggest challenge for you spiritually today? Why?
3. Pastor Bill asked, “What false ideologies are ‘marking’ you today?” Are there cultural beliefs or mindsets you’ve noticed creeping into your thinking that don’t align with God’s truth? How can we stay anchored in biblical truth while living in today’s distractions and deception?
4. Fear can often dictate our actions, but Colossians 2:15, Revelations 14:2 and Revelation 22:12 inspire us with how to live instead: with faith, urgent hope and staying focused on God’s mission. Share a time when faith, hope and God’s mission helped you push past fear.
5. The early church greeted each other with “Maranatha,” meaning “The Lord has come...The Lord is coming!” How would it change your daily mindset if you lived with this perspective?

Prayer

“Heavenly Father, in a world filled with deception, division, and distractions, help us to stand firm in Your truth, unshaken by fear and unwavering in faith. Strengthen us to live with urgent hope, keeping our hearts anchored in Your love and our eyes fixed on You. May we be found faithful, shining as Your ambassadors of peace and righteousness until the day You return. Amen.”
